THURSDAY, MAY 19. 1743.

Since our laſt arrived a Mail from France.

Piſa, May 5.

THERE are now ſo many different Stories about Baron Neuhoff, that we know not which to credit. Some People pretend that he remains concealed at Florence, whither he was conducted by a Poſtilion, whom he diſmiſs'd in the midſt of the Street, to prevent his diſcovering where he lodg'd. The Letters however of the 4th of this Inſtant, from Leghorn, confirm what we had formerly from thence, viz. That he had embark'd on board an Engliſh Man of War, which was ſince ſailed, and that it was believed he intended to make another Deſcent upon Corſica, notwithſtanding the Reports that have been ſo induſtriouſly ſpread of the abſolute Decay of his Intereſt there, which we now begin to think will be found void of all Foundation; tho' we dare not vouch ſome other Accounts we have receiv'd on this Head, nor indeed tranſcribe them, till Time has ſhewn us whether there be any Truth in them, or whether they are the mere Fictions of ſome of the Baron's Creatures.

Franckfort, May 19. The Engliſh have begun to occupy their Camp at Hockſt, ſo that our Lands lately flown, will receive no manner of Detriment from their Arrival in this Neighbourhood. We have certain Advice, that after the Victory obtain'd by the Auſtrians near Braunau, they began to cannonade that Place, and actually made two Aſſaults thereupon, but without Succeſs. As Proviſions are extremely ſcarce not only at Munich, but throughout all Bavaria, it is believed that the Emperor will be obliged to return hither ſpeedily. We are likewiſe aſſured, that the Maritime Powers have lately made ſome Propoſitions to his Imperial Majeſty, for an Accommodation between him and the Queen of Hungary, which were very favourably received. The Dyet continued aſſembled Yeſterday very late, and as ſoon as it roſe, ſeveral Couriers were diſpatch'd. The Subject of their Debate was a Pacification in Germany.

Ratiſbon, May 16. We have this Minute Advice, that General Berenclau has taken Eggenfeld, and therein all the French Huſſars and Dragoons that eſcaped at Pfarkirchen. It is likewiſe certain, that the Auſtrians are in full March for Dingelfingen. The principal Nobility of Bavaria are retiring hither with their Effects; and the French fortify all Places in which they are quarter'd, in ſuch a Manner, that it is but too evident they are ſick of all Diſputes in the Field.

Augſbourg, May 17. The Conſequences of the Engagement near Braunau, are more and more advantageous to the Auſtrians. Prince Charles of Lorrain has block'd up that City with 7 or 8000 Men; another Detachment has forc'd Burghauſen, and extended itſelf to Trosburg. The Front of the Auſtrian Army is actually at Tann and Eggenfeld. The Marſhal de Camp de Philippes retired in very good Time from the firſt of theſe Places, otherwiſe he had been ſurprized with all his Troops. Marſhal Broglio has abandon'd all his Force on that Side; but we are told, that on the 14th he cauſed 20 Battalions and 9 Squadrons, to paſs the Iſer, in order to obſtruct the Progreſs of the Auſtrian Army, while the Imperial General, Count Seckendorff, draws together his Troops near Waſſerbourg.

London in Bavaria, May 20. The Imperial Court ſends Courier after Courier to Marſhal Broglio, in order to engage him to relieve Braunau, if it be poſſible, ſince if that Place be taken, the Loſs of Munich, and the reſt of Bavaria, muſt abſolutely follow. The Auſtrians have made themſelves Maſters of two French and one Bavarian Magazine. The Loſs of theſe Proviſions muſt, of Neceſſity, reduce thoſe Armies into a ſtarving Condition, ſince already they have nothing but what comes to them by the Danube, from Countries at a great Diſtance.

Extract from the Paris Alamain,

Paris, May 24. 'His Majeſty held, on the 19th and 20th, Councils of State on the Expreſſes lately received, and conferred, on the 21ſt, aſſiduouſly with all his Miniſters.

'This Day was performed, at St. Denis, the Ceremony of bleſſing the Colours of the Militia of Paris, where they continue to aſſemble daily, and from whence they will ſpeedily march to the Place of their Deſtination.

'On the 20th arriv'd at Verſailles a Courier, who brought a Confirmation of the Loſs of the two Poſts taken by the Auſtrians from the Bavarians, and who, 'by Means of ſurprizing theſe Poſts, have cut off the 'Communication between our Army and that of the 'Emperor between the Inn and the Iſer; and that the 'Partizan La Croix had been made Priſoner of War, 'with the beſt Part of the Forces under his Command, 'the reſt being cut to Pieces; but there arriv'd a ſecond 'Courier, with Advice, that this Partizan had eſcaped, 'with three of his Officers, from the Action that hap'pen'd on the 7th; but that on the 9th there had hap'pen'd another, not more advantageous to the Bavarians 'than the former, and in which they had loſt Abundance 'of Men. Theſe two Pieces of bad News had already 'begun to ſpread Dejection of Mind through the People, 'when a third Courier arriv'd, with Advice, that on the '11th Prince Charles of Lorrain, and Prince Lobkowitz, approach'd Braunau, into which the Bavarians 'had retired after the two laſt Affairs, with an Intent to 'have taken it Sword in Hand, but the Gariſon made 'ſo vigorous a Reſiſtance, that the Auſtrians were driven 'from before the Place with the Loſs of 4000 Men kill'd 'on the Spot, and a great Number made Priſoners, a'mongſt whom, we are aſſur'd, Count Kevenhuller is 'one, who was endeavouring to rejoin Prince Charles. 'If this laſt Circumſtance be but true, it will occaſion a 'great deal Joy here, ſince he is known to be one of the 'Queen of Hungary's moſt experienc'd Generals.

The monſtrous Folly of this Paragraph ſhews to how low a Paſs the French are fallen, and that, for the future, we are to expect no more Truth in a French News Paper, than Faith in a French Treaty.

'We are aſſured, that an Aid de Camp of the 'King of Pruſſia's arrived lately in the Army of Mar'ſhal Broglio, and had ſeveral Conferences with that 'General, but upon what Subject we are not able to 'ſay.'

Actions 2130.

AS the World, already, has been ſo long amuſed with Georgia Exploits, a Perſon ought to make an Apology for taking Notice of any Thing in that Strain, which comes from that Quarter; however, I think myſelf oblig'd to make ſome Obſervations upon a Paper publiſh'd in the London Daily Poſt of the 9th Inſtant, by the Title of, Anſwers of General Oglethorpe's Officers to a Carolina Gazette; to which the General and his Officers have ſet their Names, by that Means to eſtabliſh its Authority.

I confeſs, that the Publick here may think themſelves but little concern'd, in what Manner the Carolina Regiment under my Command came off with the Artillery from that remarkable Siege of St. Auguſtine, if it may be ſo called: However, as theſe Gentlemen have told it to the World in their Way, I am now obliged, in regard to Truth, and Vindication of my own Conduct, to tell it in another; and, I hope, in a more convincing Manner, than by bare, tho' poſitive, Aſſertions, which never are made Uſe of when better Authority can be had; and therefore I chooſe that the World ſhould judge of this Affair from other Evidence than my Aſſertions in contradiction to theirs. For this Reaſon I appeal to what the Legiſlature of a Province, very materially concern'd in the Event of that Expedition, have ſaid upon it. And this will ſoon appear, in the Report of the Committee of both Houſes of Aſſembly of the Province of South Carolina, appointed to enquire into the Cauſes of the Diſappointment of Succeſs in the late Expedition againſt St. Auguſtine, under the Command of General Oglethorpe. In this Report are the Facts themſelves, which cannot prevaricate. Here are the General's own Letters, which are the ſureſt Teſtimonies of his Opinion; here are the Sentiments of both Houſes of Aſſembly, grounded on a long and ſtrict Enquiry upon Oath, the ſureſt Way to Truth, made for the Satisfaction of their Conſtituents, the Inhabitants of the Province, who had bore ſo great a Share in the Expence of that Expedition, and for that Reaſon deſired to know how it had been conducted. As this Report is now publiſhing, and with no other Deſign but to give a true and genuine Narrative of that Expedition, and the Motives which induc'd the Province of Carolina to take Part in it, it is hoped that all the Impoſitions hitherto put upon the Publick, and particularly thoſe lately publiſhed in the ſeveral News-Papers and Pamphlets, will be thereby removed, and the World ſet to right; and to that I appeal, for Juſtification of my own particular Conduct in that Affair.

To Perſons of either Sex
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS ſo frequent as of late they have been, nor have the uſual Remedies been found adequate to thoſe pertinacious Diſtempers: This occaſioned a Phyſician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palſy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced in vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and always with ſurprizing Succeſs, even ſo as infallibly to cure by it the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Diſorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that ſo thoſe labouring under theſe miſerable Ailments, might know where to meet with a ſafe and moſt certain Cure, which it accompliſhes in ſo ſhort a Time, and with ſuch Eaſe and Pleaſure (a few Drops of it being a Doſe, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almoſt incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonſtrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients from all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and Shaking, or Reſolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulſive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vaniſh and return no more; and tho' theſe Diſeaſes have been of many Years ſtanding, whether occaſioned by long Illneſs, faſt Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cauſe; for it performs all that can be wiſh'd for in Nervous Caſes, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digeſtion, occaſions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, cauſes a free and regular Circulation 'em thro' the Capillary Veſſels, revives and increaſes the Spirits, warms, comforts, ſtrengthens, and repleniſhes the Brain and whole Nervous Syſtem, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs reſtored to their priſtine Steadineſs and Strength, and the Palſy and all Paralytick Diſorders and Nervous Diſeaſes ſuddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themſelves, and all about them.

This ſovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be ſold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible Cure in the Univerſe for the VENEREAL DISEASE from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are moſt roughly contaminated with its malignant VIRUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Ill on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet or Weakneſs to enſue on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Pox attended with Nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breaking out, and all the other moſt exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy or true VENUS Antidote in the World; and this ſome Thouſands have by their great Joy experience'd.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Belching, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſh'd, without the Knowledge of the moſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury, tho' by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch likewiſe as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doſes of it intirely free themſelves from all Suſpicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on this Account, in all ſcorbutick, ſcrophulous, and even leproſy Eruptions or Foulneſſes of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Bottle than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this moſt Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAMSEY's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up with Directions, by the Peruſal of which, all Perſons who have ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe, may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is totally rooted out of their Bodies

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Genuine.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noſter-Row.
